SOURCE As stated

- B-2 1. An undetermined number of German deserters from the French Foreign Legion have entered Siam during the past few months. They claim that they quit the Legion because of unbearable conditions and their dislike of the war in French Indo China. (Source: Foreign Resident of Siam)
- F-2 2. At least eight such deserters are now in Bangkok and were checked in by the police. (Source: Siamese police official) The number of unreported cases is probably many times this figure. The
- B-2 Siamese are very lenient toward them and allow them complete freedom of movement. (Source: Foreign Resident of Siam)
- C-3 3. One group of these men lives communally in a house in Bangkok under the sponsorship of local former Nazis. Some deserters are former German SS men who joined the Legion from prison camps in the French zone of Germany to escape prosecution and punishment by Allied authorities for war crimes. (Source: French Resident of Siam, of Leftist Tendencies)
- C-3 4. Daily meetings at 6 a.m. of unidentified Germans are taking place at a house in the Bangkapi district. (Source: French Resident of Siam, of Leftist Tendencies)
- F-6 5. Similar groups of former Nazis are being formed in French Indo China. (Source: Educated, pro-Viet Nam Annamite)
